

2024 Asian Liberal Education Conference (ALEC 2024)
アジアリベラル教育会議

Exploring the Meaning of Liberal Arts Education in the Socio-economy: East Asian Perspectives

社会経済における教養教育の意味を問う—東アジアの視点—

J
A
C
U
E

K
A
G
E
D
U

C
A
G
E

Date & Time: 13:30-17:30 Friday, September 6th, 2024
Venue: Rm612 Extended Education & Research Building, Katahira Campus, Tohoku University,
Sendai, Miyagi, Japan

- Conference is held in HyFlex: In-person and Online (Zoom)
- Simultaneous interpretation (Korean, Chinese and Japanese)

ALEC is an annual conference on liberal arts education organized by ALEN, an Asian network for the promotion of liberal arts education consisting of Korean Association of General Education (KAGEDU) and Chinese Association for General Education (CAGE) and Japan Association for College and University Education (JACUE).

Hosted by JACUE and Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research(B) 'International Comparative Study on the Reconstruction of Liberal Arts Education in East Asia', PI: Rie MORI (NIAD-QE)
Co-hosted by Institute for Excellence in Higher Education (IEHE), Tohoku University

A2

L0

E2

C4

Welcome Greeting

Hirotsugu TAKIZAWA, Professor & Executive Vice President for Education and Student Support, Tohoku University

Opening Remarks

Kayo MATSUSHITA, Professor, Kyoto University
President, JACUE

Introduction & Ceremony

Kazuhiro SUGIMOTO, Professor, Tohoku University
Chair of International Committee, JACUE

1

Keynote Speech

Reiko YAMADA
Professor, Doshisha University
Executive Director and
Former President, JACUE

2

Presentations

Each of ALEN organizations provide a presentation and comment

- KAGEDU
- CAGE
- JACUE

3

General Discussion

Closing Remarks

Cheng-Shu KAO, Professor, Feng Chia University
President, CAGE

Moderator

Rie MORI, Professor, NIAD-QE & International Committee, JACUE